I am very interested in continuing to serve on the Sitka Library Commission. I have been on the Commission for the last three years, and am currently serving as Chair .....and I would love to continue working with other Sitkans to support our library.

My family has lived in Sitka since 1962, I graduated from Sitka High School, and I have many family members living here. I am a retired elementary teacher who taught for twenty-one plus year in the Sitka School District. Sitka is my home, I care deeply about its' institutions, and am very interested in its' future, especially that of the library.
