Re: Kake Elementary School, Site Superintendent

To Whom It May Concern:

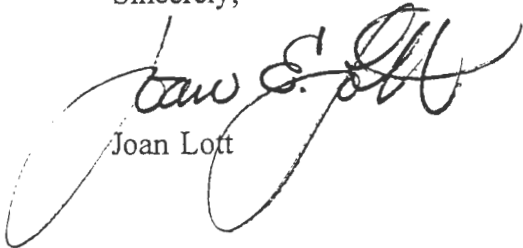

We have recently completed construction of an Elementary School in Kake, Alaska. The facility is a one story 10,000 sf wood frame building constructed by Shaffer Tisher Construction. Royce Rath was their site Superintendent.

Royce was a pleasure with which to work. He was organized and thorough, planning well in advance of construction progress. Questions pertaining to upcoming construction activity were asked in a timely manner, allowing adequate time for response as well as site preparation. Royce interpreted the construction documents accurately and sought to execute the work in a craftsman like manner. His work and the work of those under him was of excellent quality.

Royce seemed to have good rapport with both Subcontractor and School Personnel. He responded in all situations in a straight forward, calm and respectful manner.

We are pleased with the finish product of the new Elementary School and we would not hesitate to recommend Royce for work on other projects.

Sincerely,

Joan Lott

To Whom It may concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Royce Rath, a contractor with whom I have had a number of opportunities to work with. Mr. Rath was the Construction Superintendent for Shafer-Tisher Construction, while I was Project Architect for the renovation of the Shee-Atika Totem Square Building in Sitka, Alaska. These renovation projects were under construction from June, 1992 to April, 1994. The work included all aspects of interior construction, and was especially difficult due to the unique construction and lack of information available on the Totem Square Building. Mr. Rath performed the work admirably, and was very easy to work with. When problems were discovered he made reasonable suggestions for solutions, and always acted professionally. He worked very well with the subcontractors, and the clients were quite pleased with the final products. I have absolutely no reservations in recommending him for future construction projects.

Please feel free to contact me if you should have any questions.

Sincerely,

Re: Royce Rath

To Whom It May Concern:

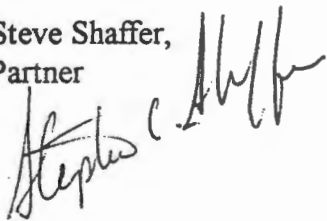

Royce has worked for Shaffer-Tisher Construction and it's partners for over eight years. In recent years he held responsibility as the foreman on most of our building projects.

He is an excellent carpenter and job superintendent who has worked in all phases of construction. Residential and commercial duties have included carpentry, foreman, job superintendent, ordering material, as well as bidding jobs. He is knowledgeable and organized with a thoughtful, calm approach to planning his activities. He has worked well with clients as well as employees, subcontractors and government agencies.

We are pleased to support him in his efforts as a new general contractor.
