Assembly:

Thank you for this opportunity to become a member on the Port & Harbors Commission.

As a resident of the Eliason Harbor, where I live with my wife and daughter, I witness daily the work the Harbor Department performs to keep our docks operational. I have great respect for the amount of time, and attention to detail, workers expend to keep our boats safe.

I would like to do my part as a Sitkan, and commit my time to serving on a commission. I would look forward to attending the nine annual meetings of, keeping up with the business of the assembly, and being a contributing member to the ongoing conversation on how to improve Sitka's marine facilities. I would take very seriously the commitment to planning new harbors, evaluating needs for better harbor services, examining harbor ordinances, reviewing budgets, and preparing the annual report to the assembly on the general status of the harbor system. I would bring to bear my background as a general contractor for seven years, a deckhand and worker in the commercial fishing industry since the age of 19, and a writer, in an effort to keep the docks safe, operational, and up-to-date.

I am currently on the board of the Sitka Conservation Society. I have an B.A. and M.A. from Oxford University, and teach creative writing at Stanford.

Once again, thank you for the opportunity.

Respectfully,

Brendan L. Jones
