MEMORANDUM

To: Mayor Eisenbeisz and Assembly Members

Thru: John Leach, Municipal Administrator

From: Melissa Haley, Finance Director

Date: May 17, 2021

Subject: Update of Alaska Remote Sellers Sales Tax Commission Code

Background

In May of 2020, the Assembly passed Ordinance 2020-13, adopting the Alaska Remote Seller Sales Tax Commission (ARSSTC) code (uniform code) by incorporating it entirely into the City and Borough of Sitka's (CBS) Code. After a year of operation, the ARSSTC has identified a number of areas of the uniform code that need to be updated. The ARRSTC along with a policy committee consisting of tax staff from member communities (including two CBS employees) recommended updates which were approved by the ARSSTC board (of which the CBS Finance Director is a board member). Some jurisdictions adopted the uniform code by reference, so that any updates are automatically adopted, however other, like Sitka, that adopted the uniform code by integrating it into their own code and must take action to adopt any updates to the uniform code. The ARSSTC has asked all jurisdiction that have incorporated the uniform code to adopt the updates within 120 days. In order to remain an active commission member and collect remote sales tax, the CBS needs to adopt the revised uniform code.

There are now nearly 1,100 registered remote sellers and the ARSSTC continues to add new sellers (recent additions include Apple, Columbia Sportswear, Zales/Kay/Jared Jewelers, Yakima, Honest Company, and Sephora). 35 jurisdictions have joined the commission and adopted the uniform code and 11 more are in the process of joining.

Analysis

The majority of the code updates are minor fixed for consistency of implementation. The most significant update was to very clearly define services to be those services delivered into a member jurisdiction. This is consistent with how the CBS taxes sales, and thus clarification further aligns the uniform code with our own. Attached is a summary of code updates prepared by the ARSSTC that details the change and the reason for the code update.

Fiscal Note

To date, Sitka has received $399,500 in additional net revenue (collected from sales from April 2020 through March 2021) through the commission—primarily from sellers that did not collect and remit directly to the CBS previously. The CBS has paid approximately $85,000 or 17.6% of total remittances to the ARSSTC.

If the remote seller or marketplace facilitator intends to continue doing business a return shall be filed reflecting no sales and a confirmation of the intent to continue doing business and shall continue to do so each filing period until the entity ceases doing business or sells the business. If the remote seller or marketplace facilitator intends to cease doing business, a final return shall be filed along with a statement of business closure.

In the event the Commission is unable to ascertain the tax due from a remote seller or marketplace facilitator by reason of the failure of the remote seller or marketplace facilitator to keep accurate books, allow inspection, or file a return, or by reason of the remote seller or marketplace facilitator filing a false or inaccurate return, the Commission may make an estimate of the tax due based on any evidence in their possession.
- B. Sales taxes may also be estimated, based on any information available, whenever the Commission has reasonable cause to believe that any information on a sales tax return is not accurate.
- C. A remote seller's or marketplace facilitator's tax liability under this chapter may be determined and assessed for a period of sixthree years after the date the return was filed or due to be filed with the Commission. No civil action for the collection of such tax may be commenced after the expiration of the sixthree-year period except an action for taxes, penalties, and interest due from those filing periods that are the subject of a written demand or assessment made within the sixthree-year period, unless the remote seller or marketplace facilitator waives the protection of this section.
- D. The Commission shall serve the notice on the remote seller or marketplace facilitator by delivering the notice to the remote seller's or marketplace facilitator's place of business, or by mailing the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the remote seller's or marketplace facilitator's last known mailing address. A remote seller or marketplace facilitator who refuses the certified mail will be considered to have accepted the certified mail for purposes of service.

 - 2. Files a written notice with the Commission appealing the estimated tax amount in accordance with the appeal procedures, under the provisions of section 4.10.160 of this chapter.
 - 3. Arguments or reasons for failure to timely file a return and remit taxes collected shall not be considered a valid basis or grounds for granting an appeal. The basis and grounds for granting an appeal of an assessment are:
 - a. The identity of the remote seller or marketplace facilitator is in error;

306

b. The amount of the debt is erroneous due to a clerical error (and the nature and extent of the error is specified in the request for appeal); or
